GOOGLE “STREET VIEW SPECIAL COLLECTIONS” – IN REHOBOTH BEACH/DEWEY BEACH

Beginning on Monday, August 25 through Friday, August 29, representatives from Google will be in downtown Rehoboth Beach walking around in designated areas with a Google “Trekker” which takes photos every 2-3 seconds. The footage will be part of their “Street View Special Collections” which will provide a “person on the street” look at the Resort area. Stand by for more details.

SILVER LAKE/LAKE COMEGYS – DEDICATION OF HISTORIC MARKER

Save Our Lakes Alliance3 (SOLA3) invites you to attend the dedication ceremony for a new Delaware State Historical Marker commemorating the important history of Silver Lake and Lake Comegys, at 10AM on Monday, August 25, 2014. Stephen Marz, C. A., Director, Delaware Public Archives, will preside at the dedication. Representative Pete Schwartzkopf, Speaker of the House, and Senator Ernie Lopez, are the legislative sponsors for the marker. They, along with David Small, Secretary of DNREC, will also speak at the dedication. The ceremony will take place at the State's bird refuge on Silver Lake's shoreline, located at the south end of the Silver Lake Bridge, at the end of Bayard Avenue in Rehoboth, where it then becomes Silver Lake Drive. Parking on both sides of Silver Lake Drive. Inquiries may be sent to SaveOurLakes3@aol.com

NEW PARKING INFORMATION - SEA WITCH FESTIVAL
